

SMBC Group establishes new EMEA headquarters at 100 Liverpool Street, London

London, Monday 11 April 2022 — SMBC Group has announced that all of its UK-based legal entities will be relocating to a new, contemporary central office at 100 Liverpool Street, London, where SMBC Group will occupy three floors.

The change of registered address will take place on or around Monday 16 May 2022, and will establish 100 Liverpool Street as SMBC Group's new headquarters for its EMEA Division.

The convergence of all UK-based legal entities into this central location, to complement its operational centre at Harbour Exchange, will create operational efficiencies for SMBC Group in the EMEA region and will further enable the delivery of a universal banking platform to its customers.

1. The legal entities relocating include:
 - a. SMBC Bank International plc
 - b. SMBC Nikko Capital Markets Limited
 - c. SMBC Leasing and Finance, Inc. (incorporated in the United States of America) and its subsidiaries
 - d. SMBC Leasing (UK) Limited and its subsidiaries
 - e. JRI Europe Limited
 - f. Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation, London Branch (incorporated in Japan)
 - g. SMBC Aviation Capital (UK) Limited
 - h. SMBC Asset Management Services (UK) Limited.
 - i. Sumitomo Mitsui Finance and Leasing Company, Limited
 - j. Sumitomo Mitsui DS Asset Management Limited
 - k. SMBC Derivative Products Limited
2. New address:

100 Liverpool Street, London EC2M 2AT, United Kingdom
3. New contact details:

Telephone: +44 (0)20 4507 1000
Facsimile: +44 (0)20 4507 1500
4. Date of change of registered address:

On or around Monday 16 May 2022