CASH MANAGEMENT SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Agreement governs the terms and conditions associated with the cash management services that we provide to you. As used in this Agreement, the terms “we”, “us”, “our”, “Bank” and “SMBCE” refer to the Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation Europe Limited. The terms “you” and “your” refer to the party (ies) executing this Agreement as the Customer below.

1. General Scope of Agreement

(a) Use of Services. You may access and use our various cash management services through physical paper-based instructions and certain services may be accessed and used by telephone or through our corporate Internet site, www.smbcgroup.com. In addition, where you have provided us with notice, certain cash management services may be executed by you through a payment initiation service provider and account information may be accessed by you using an account information service provider (as those service providers are defined in the French Code monétaire et financier).

By using our cash management services, whether accessed directly via our online banking service or via a payment initiation service provider or an account information service provider, you agree to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the other documents and agreements referred to herein which are incorporated by reference. You understand and acknowledge that the services are accessed through the use of various signatures, identification codes and passwords, and that we are entitled to rely upon any instructions, information or transactions provided or initiated by anyone using these signatures, identification codes and passwords and treat such instructions, information or transactions as having been authorized and approved by you.

Payment initiation service providers and account information service providers

Your use of any payment initiation service or account information service (as those service providers are defined in the French Code monétaire et financier) to access or use any of our services will be subject to your consent to the engagement of such a service provider and by which you will agree that we may transmit data about you, your accounts with us and any previous or intended payment transaction to that service provider that is necessary in order to undertake their services for you and to effect the services we provide under this Agreement. You agree that such consent may be provided to us via the relevant provider or by you directly and we shall be entitled to rely on a notification of your consent indefinitely until this Agreement is terminated or until such time as we receive notice from you or the service provider that your consent has been withdrawn. You agree that you cannot withdraw your consent whilst a payment is being processed.

When we transmit data about you or your accounts or process any payment transaction to or through any such provider we shall treat any request or order transmitted to us by that provider as if it had been made by you directly. In such circumstances references to "you" and any obligation imposed on you under this Agreement shall apply to the extent necessary to ensure that the requested payment or service is carried out in accordance with this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, we shall not enter into any contractual relationship with any such service provider you engage and any such service provider shall not be our agent or sub-contractor. We do not accept any liability for any loss or damage caused to you, howsoever arising, in relation to any action, omission or breach of legal or regulatory obligation caused or attributable to in whole or part by any such service provider; the foregoing does not affect our obligations to you where an executed payment transaction was initiated through a payment initiation services provider and was not authorised by you and you have notified us of the error within the time limit specified in this Agreement.

The terms and conditions you enter into with the relevant provider will be in addition to the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, no term or condition of any such service provider you engage shall require us to do or not to do anything that would be contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement. The obligations in this Agreement imposed on you are not waived or modified by us if you engage any payment initiation service provider or account information service provider or if we transmit any data to any such provider concerning you, your accounts or any payment transactions.

(b) Services. This Agreement sets forth terms and provisions applicable to any or all of the following services (the "Services") you elect to obtain from us through our "E-Moneyger[®]" online banking service. These may include:

- i. Account Balance and Statement Reporting;
- ii. Fund Transfer (Book and Wire) Services; and
- iii. Foreign Exchange and Money Market Deal Confirmation services.

All of these services may be accessed through our "E-Moneyger[®]" online banking service available through our web site, www.smbcgroup.com. You may select additional Services (or delete existing Services) in the future by informing us in writing. You shall use the Services solely to carry on your lawful business, and you shall not use any of the Services to process or facilitate transactions for or on behalf of any third party without obtaining our prior written consent. From time to time we may change the Services that we make available to you under this Agreement, including adding new or withdrawing any existing Services. We will provide you with written notice of any such changes to the available Services. Any withdrawal of a Service which we are already providing to you shall be governed by Clause 13 (Termination).

(c) Addenda, Documentation and Specifications. Detailed procedures for the use of certain Services are contained in implementation documents ("Documentation"), which, if applicable to a Service, we will supply to you before you begin to use that Service. In connection with certain Services, we will provide you with specifications ("Specifications") before you begin to use that Service. In addition, specific terms and conditions may apply to a Service as set out in the various addenda attached to this Agreement ("Addenda"). If you elect to obtain any of the Services through our web site (including those Services offered through E-Moneyger[®]), you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions governing online use as set out in Addendum 1 (Addendum for e- Moneyger[®] Online Banking Services) to this Agreement. You may be required to complete and provide information to us in connection with the Documentation, Specifications and Addenda which are applicable to the Services you have requested.

When you begin to use a particular Service, you also agree to be legally bound by all of the terms and conditions stated in the Addenda, Documentation and Specifications applicable to that Service (if any). You agree that we may modify the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement, including in any Addenda, Documentation and Specifications relating to any specific Service, from time to time at our discretion. We will provide you with notice of any such modifications and a date (which will be a date not earlier than two months from the date of the notice we provide) when they will become effective (the "Effective Date"). You may elect not to accept the modifications, and in such event (unless we otherwise agree), you must terminate this Agreement or, in the case of any amendments to any applicable Addenda, Documentation and/or Specifications, your use of the specific Service to which the modifications relate, and notify us accordingly. Your continued use of any Service we provide to you after the Effective Date will constitute your consent and agreement to the relevant modifications.

The Addenda, Documentation and Specifications applicable to the Services you have requested form an integral part of this Agreement and are incorporated into it by reference. This Agreement, the Addenda, the Documentation and/or Specifications are intended to be read together. If there is any inconsistency between this Agreement, the Addenda, the Documentation and/or Specifications, the terms of the Addenda, Documentation and Specifications will prevail. For the avoidance of doubt, you shall only be bound by the terms of the Addenda, Documentation and/or Specifications applicable to the Services we provide to you.

(d) Writing. This Agreement, together with the various addenda, schedules or notices provided hereunder may be provided to you entirely or in part in paper form or electronically.

(e) Defined Terms and Interpretation. Terms defined in this Agreement shall, unless otherwise defined therein, have the same meaning in any Addenda, Documentation or Specifications. Any reference to this Agreement includes the relevant Addenda, Documentation and/or Specifications provided by us in connection with this Agreement. "Business Day" for the purposes of this Agreement includes any day (other than a Saturday or Sunday) when we are open for general business in Paris. Any reference to a "party" is to a party to this Agreement and also includes a reference to that party's successors and permitted assigns. A "person" includes a natural person, corporate or unincorporated body (whether or not having separate legal personality). A reference to any party shall include that party's successors or permitted assigns. A provision of law is a reference to that provision as amended or re-enacted.

2. Accounts

In performance of the Services it may be necessary for us to establish accounts on your behalf at other banking institutions with whom we have established a contractual relationship. Unless otherwise indicated in this Agreement, any reference to an "Account" in this Agreement shall refer to any of your accounts at SMBCE or any accounts we have established at any other banking institution (each a "Related Bank") for the purpose of providing the Services.

3. Fees

Our fees for the "E-Moneyger[®]" online banking services will be as set forth in and payable in accordance with Addendum 2 (Fee Addendum) to this Agreement (together, the "Fees"), or as otherwise agreed in writing between us from time to time. We will provide you with a copy of our most recent fee schedule upon request. We will provide you with written notice of any changes to the Fees, which will become effective on and as of the date specified in such notice, and which shall in any such case be no earlier than thirty (30) calendar days following the date of such notice.

4. Security Procedures

(a) Establishment of Security Procedures. If required for a Service, at our request you will establish appropriate security procedures, including the designation of individuals authorized to access and use the Services and the use of signatures, identification numbers and passwords, which you must safeguard. Using these security procedures you will transmit information and instructions (collectively, "Instructions") to us. We are entitled to accept and act on Instructions if they have been authenticated by the relevant security procedures.

(b) Purpose of Security Procedures. Security procedures are intended to confirm the authenticity of the Instructions you provide to us. We assume no responsibility to discover or audit any unauthorized disclosure or use of the security procedures or other breach of security by you, your agents or representatives, or any third party.

(c) Use of Security Procedures. You acknowledge that you have been advised of the various security procedures employed by us, that you understand them, and that the Instructions you will issue to us under this Agreement will employ the security procedure suitable to your particular circumstances.

(d) Confidentiality of Security Procedures. You must preserve the confidentiality of the security procedures both you and we use in connection with the Services. You should disclose the security procedures only to those employees who are required to know them. You must preserve the confidentiality and security of any security codes or devices and make them available only to the authorized individuals designated by you to use the Services.

(e) Change of Security Procedures. We reserve the right to change the security procedures upon notice to you.

5. Confidentiality

(a) Your Confidentiality Obligations. All computer programs, data bases, equipment, trade secrets, processes, proprietary data, documentation, user manuals and related materials or information provided by us to you in connection with this Agreement are confidential and are owned exclusively by us or by the third parties from whom we have secured the right to use such items (collectively, "Confidential Information"). You shall treat the Confidential Information as confidential and not copy (except for back-up purposes), disclose or otherwise make the Confidential Information available in any form to any person or entity except to your employees on a need-to-know basis. Upon termination of this Agreement, you shall return all Confidential Information to us.

(b) Breach. Any breach or threatened breach of this Clause will cause immediate irreparable injury to us and you agree that injunctive relief, including preliminary injunctive relief and specific performance should be awarded as appropriate to remedy such breach without limiting our right to other remedies available in the case of such a breach. We may apply to a court for preliminary injunctive relief, permanent injunctive relief and/or specific performance but such application shall not abrogate our right to proceed with an action in a court of competent jurisdiction in order to resolve the underlying dispute.

(c) Our Confidentiality Obligations. We will treat personal and business information which you provide to us, and information concerning the accounts held with us, in the course of the Services as private and confidential. We may share this information with our affiliated companies. We may share necessary information with our service providers in order to carry out transactions initiated by you. We will restrict their use of such information for any purpose other than carrying out these transactions and providing the services requested by us. We may share this information when we are legally required to do so, such as with law enforcement authorities, or as directed by court order. We may also share this information to prevent fraud, with our accountants and lawyers as required for them to carry out their responsibilities to us, with our regulators as requested by them and for other similar purposes. We will not sell or transmit this information to third parties to allow them to solicit you or provide the information to them for their own independent use. We may, however, share selected information with our business partners in order to deliver products and services you have requested and in order to communicate with you about us, our products and services.

Where you have given notice to us of your consent to use one or more payment initiation service provider or account information service provider to use any of our services you agree that we may transmit such information about you, your accounts that you hold with us and any completed or prospective transactions as is requested by any such provider or which we deem necessary to transmit to any such provider for the purpose of that provider undertaking the relevant payment initiation service or account information service. Such information will be communicated by us to the relevant provider in accordance with the applicable regulatory technical standards adopted under Article 98 of the payment services directive, but we shall not be liable for the subsequent retention, use or loss of any such information by any third party provider or by any of their agents once transmitted by us in accordance with the consent you provided to us.

6. Instructions

(a) Reliance. We will rely on Instructions provided by you in connection with your use and access of the Services. In connection therewith, we will assume that any person using your signatures, check stock, access codes, identification codes or passwords has been authorized to provide Instructions to us.

(b) Use of Account or Other Identifying Number. You understand that we routinely rely on account numbers in executing payment orders, any automated clearing house entry or for fund transfers and other transactions. If you or your agent issues Instructions containing an identifying or bank account number of the beneficiary, we and all intermediary and beneficiary banks may rely, without liability to you, on such number without inquiry of you or other verification, even if such Instruction contains a name or other information that may be inconsistent with such number. You will be obligated to pay the amount specified in such Instruction if it is a payment or transfer order. Similarly, we may rely on the identifying or account number as the correct identification of the beneficiary when we receive incoming payment orders. You agree to compensate us for any loss and expense incurred by us as a result of such reliance on such number in executing or attempting to execute your Instruction.

(c) Cancellation or Amendment. If you ask us to amend or cancel any Instruction and your request complies with our internal procedures as in effect from time to time, we will use reasonable efforts to comply with your request prior to executing your Instruction. We will not be liable to you, however, if we fail for any reason to amend or cancel your Instruction.

(d) No Action On Instruction. We shall not be obligated to act upon any Instruction:

- i. which is not in accordance with our internal procedures (or those of any Related Bank), as in effect from time to time;
- ii. for which we are not able to obtain any necessary authentication;
- iii. which would result in a debit to any of your accounts with us or any Related Bank exceeding the available funds in such account and any pre-established credit limit;
- iv. which would exceed any credit or other limit established for you by us from time to time;
- v. which is incomplete or ambiguous;
- vi. which, in our sole judgment, we are or may be unable to act on because of legal process, applicable law or regulation, or other government guidelines; or
- vii. if, in our sole judgment, your financial condition is impaired or we suspect fraud or an unlawful activity may occur in connection with any Service.

(e) Notice. If we reject or do not act upon your Instruction, we shall notify you within a reasonable time by telephone, electronic transmission or overnight mail, but we shall have no liability to you (whether for interest or otherwise) or any other person by reason of any delay in providing, or any failure to provide, such notice or the requested transaction.

(f) Verification. You are responsible for verifying that we have received your Instruction. We will have no liability to you in connection with an Instruction you attempt to issue to us which is not received by us.

(g) Instructions Received After Cut-Off Time. If your Instruction is received by us after the cut-off time specified for the applicable Service or on a day that is not a Business Day, then the Instruction shall be deemed to have been received on the next Business Day.

(h) Unauthorized Transactions and Breaches of Security Procedures. If at anytime, you become aware of any unauthorized transactions being made and/or any breach of any security procedures, you must without undue delay and in any event no later than thirteen (13) months after the transaction date, notify us in accordance with Clause 16(a) (Notices).

(i) Changes. From time to time, you may change information you have provided to us in connection with the Services. We may rely on the information previously supplied by you until we receive written notice of any change on forms prescribed by us, signed by your authorized representative and have had a reasonable opportunity to act on such notice(s).

7. Statements, Notices, Confirmations

(a) Statements. We shall provide you with periodic statements and notices and, as applicable, transaction confirmations for the Services you use. You will be deemed to have received information made electronically available on the date the information is available for access by you.

(b) Your Obligation. You agree to examine promptly all statements, transaction confirmations and other notices, which we or other banks send or make available to you. If there is a discrepancy or error ("Error") reflected in any statement, notice or transaction confirmation produced by us, you should notify us of the Error, (i) in the case of any statement or notice, within sixty (60) calendar days of your receipt of such statement or notice or, (ii) in the case of a transaction confirmation, by the next Business Day after receipt of such transaction confirmation. If you notify us orally, you shall promptly confirm the notification in writing.

(c) Limitation of Liability. If you suffer a damage as a consequence of an Error, our liability will be limited to the restitution of the fees we perceived [for the issuance of the statement, notice or transaction confirmation reflecting such Error] and, as the case may be, the paying of an indemnity (itself limited to five (5) times the amount of such fees).

(d) Multi-Bank Statement Services. Periodically other third party banks or financial institutions may provide balance and statement reports to you and we may arrange for these reports to be made available to you through “E-Moneyger[®]”. By signing this Agreement, you agree that SMBCE and its affiliates shall not be liable or responsible for, and makes no representation as to the accuracy, reliability or completeness of, any information contained in any such multi-bank statement reports provided by a third party bank or financial institution. The terms and conditions of this Agreement apply without limitation to the provision of such multi-bank statement services, including (for the avoidance of doubt) the right of SMBCE to terminate such service at any time at its discretion as contemplated by paragraph (b) of Clause 13 of this Agreement.

8. No Extension of Credit; Fund Transfer; Setoff

(a) Your Obligation. If a Service involves a debit to any of your accounts with us (a “Fund Transfer”), you shall have in your deposit account the required amount of available funds to enable us to make the debit. Nothing in this Agreement shall constitute, or shall be deemed to constitute, a commitment by us to extend credit or grant overdraft privileges to you or any other person, nor shall any course of dealing between you and us constitute, or be deemed to constitute, any such commitment or grant. We shall have no obligation to make any funds available to effect any payment being made by or to you in utilizing any of the Services. At no time shall we be required to overdraw your account, even if we have allowed you to do so on one or more prior occasions.

(b) All Items Subject to Final Payment. All non-cash deposits are posted to your account subject to our receipt of “final payment” from the bank or other person on which the item is drawn. If we receive notice that an item is being returned to us unpaid, or if we do not receive final payment on a deposited item, because, for example, the drawer has placed a stop payment or the item is returned “insufficient funds” or “account closed”; or if an item is returned after final payment, we will charge your account for the amount of the item, for any interest earned on the item and for our applicable charges, even if the amount of the item has already been made available to you and even if we do not actually receive the returned item. If the chargeback of a returned item or a bank charge creates an overdraft, you agree to pay us the amount of the overdraft immediately, and we may charge your account a service charge for the overdraft. Interest or service charges on overdrawn balances will be charged at the applicable overdraft rates based on the terms of the overdraft agreement which will be duly signed separately. We receive final payment for deposited items at different times depending on the location of the banks or other parties who will pay the items. In addition, our receipt of final payment may be delayed further due to circumstances beyond our reasonable control. If we must pay any fees to collect an item you have deposited, we will charge the fees to your account and we may impose a service charge for the collection. We may immediately, but shall not be obligated to, charge-back to any of your accounts the amount of any returned item or debit or credit entry, and you shall be liable to us for such amount until paid to us. If we credit your account for any Fund Transfer, the credit we give you is provisional until we receive final credit for the Fund Transfer through a Federal Reserve Bank or other applicable payment system. If we do not receive final settlement or payment, you agree that you must refund to us the amount we credited to you for the Fund Transfer, and we may charge any account you have with us for such amount. In such case, the person making the payment to you will be considered not to have paid you the amount of the Fund Transfer.

(c) Setoff. We shall have a contractual right of setoff against your deposits for your obligations to us under this Agreement. We may invoke and exercise our right of setoff and it shall be deemed to have been exercised immediately upon any default by you without any action by us, although we may enter the setoff on our books and records at a later time. Any exercise by us of our rights under this Clause shall be without prejudice to any other rights or remedies available to us under this Agreement or otherwise.

9. Our Retention of Records

Records. We may, but are not required by this Agreement to, maintain records, including computer files and other electronic records, of any transactions, Instructions, communications or other acts or omissions relating to the Services provided to you and may retain such records for so long as we deem appropriate. Any such records retained by us may be made available to you, at our discretion, subject to payment by you of any costs and expenses reasonably incurred by us in doing so.

10. Limitation Of Liability

(a) Unauthorized Transactions. We shall have no liability to you for any unauthorized transfer made using the security procedures that occurs before you have notified us of possible unauthorized use, unless directly caused by our gross negligence or willful misconduct. You may be responsible for losses resulting from any unauthorized use of the Services if you have acted fraudulently, failed to notify us of any suspected breach or if you act without reasonable care (which may apply if you do not comply with your obligations under Clause 6 (Instructions)).

(b) Altered Instructions. We shall incur no liability for acting upon and carrying out the funds transfer Instructions we receive, even if the information we receive has been altered during transmission, regardless of the events or circumstances leading to the alteration, including without limitation, your failure (1) to access our online corporate banking Services using a personal computer on which virus protection software has been installed, (2) to update virus signature files promptly when updates become available from the manufacturer of the virus protection software, and (3) to immediately install updates to browser software as such updates become available from the manufacturer.

(c) General Limitations on our Liability. You agree that the Bank, any of its parents, subsidiaries or affiliates, and any third party providers engaged by the Bank to perform any of the Services connected with this Agreement shall have no liability to you under or in connection with this Agreement, or any collateral agreement, whether arising in or caused by a breach of contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty or otherwise, save as expressly provided or contemplated in paragraph (d) of this Clause.

(d) Exceptions. Nothing in this Clause 10 or otherwise in this Agreement shall exclude or in any way limit any person's liability to you for (i) fraud, (ii) death or personal injury caused by its negligence, (iii) gross negligence or (iv) any liability to the extent the same may not be excluded or limited as a matter of law or regulation.

(e) Indirect and consequential losses. If you suffer a damage as a consequence of our actions under this Agreement, our liability will be limited to the restitution of the fees we perceived and, as the case may be, the paying of an indemnity (itself limited to five (5) times the amount of such fees).

(f) No representations. We make no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, in connection with any of the Services or any software or equipment we may supply to you; any condition, warranty, representation or other term which might otherwise be implied into or incorporated in this Agreement or any collateral contract, whether by statute, common law or otherwise, is hereby expressly excluded.

11. Indemnification

(a) Indemnity. You agree to indemnify us and each of our respective shareholders, directors, officers, and employees, and the shareholders, directors, officers and employees of our affiliated companies (the "Indemnified Parties") and to hold each Indemnified Party harmless from and against any and all claims, damages, losses, liabilities and expenses (including all legal fees) which any Indemnified Party may incur or which may be asserted against any Indemnified Party in connection with or arising out of the matters referred to in this Agreement (including, but not limited to, our taking actions, carrying out transactions or relying upon information initiated or provided by you) by any person, entity or governmental authority (including any person or entity claiming derivatively on your behalf).

(b) Exception. You shall have no obligation or liability under this Clause 11 for any loss of profit or consequential loss or damage of any kind suffered by an Indemnified Party, or to the extent that any losses, damages, liabilities, costs or expenses suffered or incurred by an Indemnified Party were directly caused by the Indemnified Party's or its employees' gross negligence or willful misconduct.

12. Taxes

You are responsible for paying all taxes, however designated, levied or based upon the Services, but excluding taxes based upon our net income or assets.

13. Termination

(a) Your Right to Terminate. You may terminate this Agreement at any time by providing notice to us specifying an effective date and time of termination (which must be not less than 30 days after the date of the notice). You will be obligated for all fees and charges associated with your use of the Services up to and including the effective date and time of termination. You may not use the Services after the effective date and time of termination.

(b) Our Right to Terminate. We may terminate this Agreement, or any specific Service provided by us hereunder, at any time by providing notice to you specifying an effective date and time of termination (which must be not less than two months after the date of the notice). We may also terminate this Agreement, or any Service provided by us hereunder, immediately in the event you fail to fulfill any covenant or obligation required of you hereunder or under any other agreement you have with us or with any of our affiliated companies or if, subject to the mandatory provisions of articles L.611-16 and L.620-1 to L.670-8 of the French Code de commerce, we determine that your financial condition has deteriorated or if required by law, or when your company is or becomes insolvent, commences negotiations with any of its creditors as a result of any financial difficulties, is unable to pay its debts as they fall due, presents or has presented against it in any court or before any relevant authority any petition, application or order for receivership, liquidation, administration or any similar procedure in any jurisdiction outside of France or an insolvency official (public or private) is appointed or becomes responsible for managing the affairs of your company. We may terminate this Agreement when all the accounts you have with us which use the Services have been closed. You will be obligated for all fees and charges associated with your use of the Services up to and including the effective date and time of termination. You may not use the Services after the effective date and time of termination.

(c) Certain Continuing Obligations. Notwithstanding any such termination, this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect as to all transactions for which processing has been commenced by us and all rights and liabilities arising prior to such termination. This Clause and Clauses 5(c), 7(c), 8, 9, 10, 11, 15 and 16 of this Agreement shall survive termination. Save as otherwise provided by this Clause, all rights and obligations of the parties shall cease to have effect immediately upon termination of this Agreement.

14. Force Majeure

We shall have no responsibility and shall incur no liability for any failure to carry out, or any delay in carrying out, any of our obligations under this Agreement resulting from acts, omissions, or inaccuracies of third parties not under our reasonable control, any unforeseeable and uncontrollable event (including, but not limited to, fire, floods, or adverse weather conditions), labour disputes, legal constraint, war, terrorism, the unavailability or interruption of transmission or communication facilities or utilities, equipment or other technological failure, emergency conditions, or any other cause beyond our reasonable control and whose effect may not be avoided.

15. Dispute Resolution

(a) Mediation. Should any dispute arise between you and us relating to this Agreement, you may submit a complaint to SMBCE by letter, telephone, email or in person. The claim can be addressed to the Relationship Manager in the normal way or to the Claim Department at [phone number] or [email address]. SMBCE will work with you to resolve complaints in a timely manner. If you are not satisfied with our response, you can address your complaint to SMBC's internal mediator at [phone number] or [email address].

(b) Court proceedings. Should we be unable to resolve the dispute following mediation, or if we do not wish to use, or continue to use, mediation to resolve a dispute, either you or we may bring suit with respect thereto in the Tribunal de Commerce of Paris. [Subject to the provisions above,] the Tribunal de Commerce of Paris has exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement (including a dispute relating to the existence, validity or termination of this Agreement or any non-contractual obligation arising out of or in connection with this Agreement).

16. Miscellaneous Provisions

(a) Notices. Unless otherwise stated in this Agreement, all notices required by this Agreement or by law to be given by you or us shall be sent by first class mail, overnight courier service, hand delivery, fax, electronically, or other agreed-on means, and will be effective upon delivery. All such notices shall be delivered to the address shown at the end of this Agreement. We may provide notice electronically to you by fax or secure email to your authorized representative. Either you or we may change addresses by written notice to the other. Any notice provided as set forth above shall be conclusively presumed to have been received by the party to which it is sent: on the next following Business Day, if sent by overnight courier; on the fourth Business Day after the day sent by mail; when received in legible form, if sent by fax; or, on the Business Day of delivery, if sent by hand delivery or electronic transmission.

(b) Governing Law. This Agreement (including any non-contractual disputes and claims that arise out of or in connection with this Agreement) shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of France.

(c) Assignment; Successors. Neither party may assign any of its rights and/or obligations hereunder without prior written consent of the other party, except we may assign this Agreement or any part of it to any of our affiliates upon written notice to you, and we may contract with others to provide all or any part of the Services. Our respective permitted successors and assigns shall be entitled to the same rights and will assume the same obligations as they would have been under if they had been a party to the Agreement as from its signing date.

(d) No Waiver. Except for changes made in accordance with this Agreement, no deviation, whether intentional or unintentional, shall constitute an amendment of this Agreement, and no such deviation shall constitute a waiver of any of either our or your rights or obligations. Any waiver by either you or us of any provision of this Agreement shall be in writing and shall not constitute a waiver of your or our rights under that provision in the future or of any other rights.

(d) Headings. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be used for construction or interpretation of any provisions hereof.

(e) Severability. In the event that any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall not be affected or impaired thereby.

(f) Entire Agreement. This Agreement (together with the various addenda and schedules referred to herein) constitutes your and our entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any previous or contemporaneous proposals, representations, warranties, understandings and agreements, either oral or in writing. Your account and other services you obtain from us will be subject to the account agreement and the other agreements relating thereto.

(h) Payment Services Regulations. The provisions of Sections 3 to 4 of Chapter IV, Title I, Book III of the French Code monétaire et financier (in relation notably to fees related to the provision of information and to the information obligation) other than Articles L.314-7 III and L.314-13 VII, shall not apply to this Agreement. 2. Sign-Up and Security Procedures for e-Moneyger[®] Services

(a) Customer Name, Account Information, Bank Created Customer e-Moneyger[®] System Administrator ("BCSA"), and Security Contact Designation. Please review, sign and return to SMBCE the Security Contact Letter that will be sent to you by the Bank's Information Security Team. In the Security Contact Letter you will designate a BCSA and provide his or her e-mail address. The BCSA will be the individual Security Contact who accepts receipt of the IDs, Passwords and Digital Tokens required for initial login pursuant to the Security Contact Letter. After each user ends a session by logging out of e-Moneyger[®], e-Moneyger[®] will send an e-mail confirmation to your BCSA of that user's session activity.

(b) User IDs, Passwords and Digital Tokens. In order to use e-Moneyger[®], you will need a User ID, a Digital Token which will provide a Digital Token Code, and a User Password. Your Account Executive will provide your BCSA with your initial User ID and Digital Tokens, and with instructions concerning the Digital Tokens, with which you agree to comply. In order to receive the Passwords, you must authorize at least two and up to four trusted employees to act as Security Contacts by completing and submitting the Security Contact Letter attached hereto.

(c) Responsibilities of BCSA. In addition to the responsibilities of the Security Contacts set forth in the Security Contact Letter, the BCSA shall have the following responsibilities:

(1) Completion of Initial Login Procedures.

(A) The BCSA shall be responsible for completing the initial login procedures. Your SMBCE Account Executive will schedule an appointment with your BCSA and other interested representatives, to demonstrate the e-Moneyger[®] service and to assist the BCSA in completing the initial login procedures. If the BCSA cannot be available or cannot perform the steps necessary to complete initial login for you, the BCSA shall delegate such responsibilities to another trusted employee (in many cases, an individual who is also a Security Contact), and shall provide such trusted individual with the IDs, Passwords and Digital Tokens required to complete the initial login procedures. Such new individual shall become the BCSA and shall be responsible for completing the initial login procedures.

(B) The initial login procedures require the BCSA to type into the appropriate e-Moneyger[®] screens the initial User ID, the User Password and the Digital Token Code. During the initial login process, e-Moneyger[®] requires the BCSA to change the User Password immediately after initial use. The new User Password selected by the BCSA is a confidential password for the BCSA's personal use, and should be retained by the BCSA for future use and kept confidential pursuant to the provisions hereof. All users of e-Moneyger[®] are asked to complete a User Login screen by typing in a valid User ID, a personal User Password, and the Digital Token Code displayed from time to time by the User's Digital Token. The User ID, User Password and Digital Tokens are made available to such users by their CSAs following the process described below.

(2) Creation of Additional CSAs and Authorized Users. After the initial login procedures have been completed, the BCSA has the option (1) to create one or more CSAs (“CSA”, “Additional CSAs”, or all together, “CSAs”), each of whom has the power to create Additional CSAs, and all of whom have the power to authorize individual users of e-Moneyger[®] (“Authorized Users”), and (2) to restrict the access of such Authorized Users to Customer’s accounts and activity levels related to those accounts. Additional CSAs should be trusted employees of Customer, and in many cases may also serve as Security Contacts. We recommend that at least one additional CSA be created during the initial login process.

(3) Creation of Authorized Users. Each CSA has the ability to create Authorized Users. Authorized Users must be trusted employees authorized by you to use e-Moneyger[®] to access your accounts established and maintained at the Bank’s U.K. and European branches and offices. A CSA creates an Authorized User online by following the instructions contained in the appropriate e-Moneyger[®] screen pages, which include the CSA’s assignment of a valid User ID, User Password and Digital Token for use by such Authorized User. Please ask your Account Executive to demonstrate this procedure for you.

(4) Security of IDs and Passwords. The BCSA and all CSAs are required to maintain the security, to the extent known, of each User ID, User Password and Digital Token. We strongly suggest that you observe the following security measures:

The BCSA and CSAs are also responsible for monitoring compliance by all Authorized Users with these security maintenance procedures.

(6) Restriction on BCSA Function. You hereby acknowledge that we recommend that neither the BCSA, any Security Contact nor any CSAs be authorized to act as a user of the funds transfer service offered by e-Moneyger[®].
